New Mexico Legal Aid (NMLA) is a non-profit civil legal advocacy organization serving low-income New Mexicans (at or below 125% of the federal poverty guidelines). We provide legal assistance to address many issues that affect low-income individuals and families, including: access to benefits; consumer rights; employment and income maintenance; family law and domestic violence; and housing, foreclosure, and landlord/tenant issues. We have a dedicated attorney who assists veterans with a wide variety of legal issues, including family law, landlord/tenant issues, benefits questions, and discharge upgrades.
